Care for the Family values your support and promises to respect your privacy. We will not pass your details to any other organisation. We use phone, post and email to keep you informed about our events and activities - to do this we keep your details on a computer. Please tick here if you don't wish to receive our information or be contacted again .

We regret event fees cannot be refunded. To avoid disappointment, please book as early as you can. Please note we do not have facilities to accommodate babies and young children at this event. We do not wish financial restrictions to prevent anyone from attending our event. If you require a free ticket, please write to Mark Tugwell at Care for the Family.

You will have the opportunity to contribute to the charitable work of Care for the Family at this event. We would welcome questions about the work we do and ways we can support your family.

Real-life practical advice for every parent who wants what's best for their teenager

"It covered a lot of questions that I wanted to ask tonight"

"I wish every parent could hear this information before their kids are teens!"

"Rob Parsons' ability to tackle very serious issues with humour has made me feel more relaxed about the fact that I don't have answers to all the problems"

"It's so powerful hearing someone speak about something they've lived themselves..."

"Very encouraging and supportive and fun"

Come on your own, come with friends or with your partner. No pressure, no scary group work! Just a great evening with humour and down-to-earth advice.

Your Family Charity

About Care for the Family
Since 1988, over 300,000 people have attended family-building events and courses run by Care for the Family. Many more families find support through its resources and other initiatives - including stepfamilies, bereaved parents, families where children have additional needs, and those parenting alone. Founded by best-selling author and speaker Rob Parsons, the charity is committed to strengthening family life and helping those who face family difficulties.

Care for the Family - A Christian response to a world of need. Care for the Family is a charity registered in England and Wales (no. 1066905) and in Scotland (no. SC038497). A private company limited by guarantee (no. 3482910) registered in England and Wales. Registered office: Garth House, Leon Avenue, Cardiff CF15 7RG.

Seminar presented by Rob Parsons, author of 'Teenagers! What Every Parent Has to Know.'

Rob Parsons is an international speaker on family issues. Prima magazine described Rob as a "veteran" in the battleground of parenting teenagers. His latest book, Teenagers! What Every Parent Has to Know, has already brought reassurance to thousands of parents who have been inspired by his warmth and humour.

Rob is Executive Chairman of Care for the Family and, more importantly, dad to two grown-up children. He survived life with two teenagers and can help you stay sane too!
